

...enlightening
Bedford Borough Libraries
...inspiring ...stimulating ...surprising ...motivating

Bedford High Street History Trail

Where to find out more about the history of Bedford High Street

Bedford Central Library
www.bedford.gov.uk/Libraries

Bedfordshire & Luton Archives
& Records Service (BLARS)
www.bedford.gov.uk click on Archives

The Higgins Art Gallery and Museum
www.thehigginsbedford.org.uk
nb The Higgins will be closed until Spring 2013

Spot some gems!

This was the well-known Dujon Restaurant, on the first floor. It closed in 1976. Which business is under it now?

1

A plate on the wall at number 80 where you can also find one of Bedford's oldest businesses. Can you name it?

2

Spot this pub window, part of a nineteenth century building. Which pub is it?

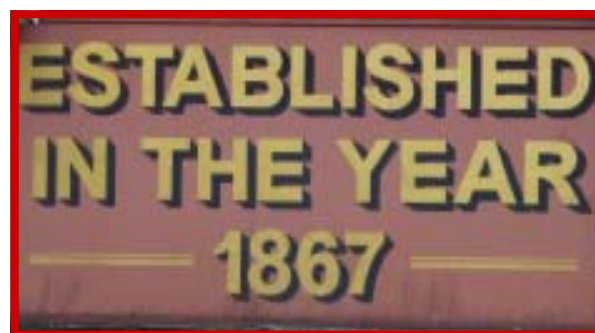

3

A drapers called Blott's used to be on this site. What is it called now?

4

5

Here is a sign on a very famous Bedford business. Name the shop.

6

One of a pair of gun dogs. Where on earth can they be? Henry Adkin, gunsmith ran his business here. Look out for his initials in the stonework.

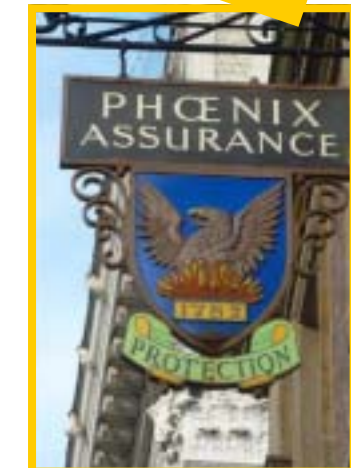

7

Find two dates on this building. It was once the site of John Bull the jewellers.

8

Can you track down this sign and name the building?